

Dear Pastor Paul Eliya, Greetings from High Commission of India, London. The High Commission of India in London acknowledges receipt of your message and the information you have shared regarding your personal circumstances. We understand the concerns you have expressed about the safety and well-being of your family. Please note that matters involving legal proceedings, property disputes, or personal security in another sovereign country must be addressed through the competent authorities and legal channels within that jurisdiction. The High Commission is not able to intervene in such internal processes or arrange international relocation, sponsorship, or evacuation. If you or your family members require assistance related to Indian citizenship, documentation, or consular matters under the jurisdiction of the Government of India, you may contact the nearest Indian mission or consulate for guidance. For concerns regarding personal security, we encourage you to approach the appropriate local law-enforcement authorities, legal representatives, or recognised international humanitarian organisations operating in your area. We appreciate your understanding in this regard and wish you and your family safety and strength. Thanks & Regards, Public Response Unit High Commission of India India House, Aldwych London WC2B 4NA Email: inf.london@mea.gov.in ---- On Sun, 16 Nov 2025 20:15:35 +0000 Syed Ali Abbas Paul Eliya eliyasyedaliabbaspaul@gmail.com wrote --- All churches of Pakistan refused to help me and my family even for the sake of Christ.
